

MARCELYN MOLLOY, PH.D

Dr. Molloy is the Chief Medical Officer at the Norwalk Community Health Center. She leads a dedicated team of professionals in keeping Norwalk's underserved communities healthy and safe. She has been an absolute asset in educating local opinion leaders and the public during the COVID pandemic. Dr. Malloy has worked tirelessly and selflessly to test, vaccinate and fight for her patients and residents of Fairfield County, even enlisting her family members to help register patients for the vaccine. She is a credit to the medical profession, and we are lucky to have her.
